

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, libraries provide the opportunity for everyone to pursue their passions and engage in lifelong learning, allowing them to live their best life; and

WHEREAS, libraries have long served as trusted institutions for all members of the community regardless of race, ethnicity, creed, ability, sexual orientation, gender identity, or socio-economic status; and

WHEREAS, libraries strive to develop and maintain programs and collections that are as diverse as the populations they serve and ensure equity of access for all; and

WHEREAS, libraries adapt to the ever-changing needs of their communities, continually expanding their collections, services, and partnerships; and

WHEREAS, libraries play a critical role in the economic vitality of communities by providing internet and technology access, literacy skills, and support for job seekers, small businesses, and entrepreneurs; and

WHEREAS, the Cozby Library and Community Commons has been serving the City of Coppel in all these ways, and more, since 1974; and

WHEREAS, libraries, librarians, and library workers are joining library supporters and advocates across the nation to celebrate National Library Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wes Mays, Mayor of the City of Coppel, do hereby proclaim the week of April 19-25, 2026, as

“NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK”

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Coppel to be affixed this 14th day of April 2026.

ATTEST:

Wes Mays, Mayor

Lauren Thoden, City Secretary
