11. Mayor and Council Reports on Recent and Upcoming Events.

Mayor Wes Mays reported on the following:

1) Celebrate Coppell – Come join us for Party in the Park this Saturday, June 28th, from 6-10:30pm at Andrew Brown Park East. There will be live music, lawn games, a drone show, and a spectacular fireworks show. Celebrate Coppell is a pedestrian-friendly event and walking is encouraged. You can find more information about the event, including accessible parking, on our City website coppelltx.gov

2) Parade Down Parkway – Join us for the Parade Down Parkway on Friday, July 4th, at 9am as we celebrate Independence Day. The parade will begin at the corner of Samuel Blvd. and Sandy Lake. From there we'll travel north on Samuel to Parkway and then west to Town Center.

3) Applications for Parade Down Parkway – If you were interested in being part of the parade but missed the application deadline, then I have some good news for you! The application deadline has been extended to Sunday, June 29th. There is no entry fee, but an application is required for participation.

4) Budget Workshop #2 | Monday, July 7 at 6 pm: Council will hear from staff and discuss the City's general operating fund. The General Fund is the City's largest fund. Council will also hear from staff and discuss the Debt Service

Fund, used to account for the accumulation of financial resources for the payment of principal, interest, and related costs for general long-term debt paid primarily from taxes levied by the City.

5) Budget Workshop #3 | Monday, July 28 at 6 pm: Council will perform a final review of the proposed budget and discuss the proposed tax rate.
