Subject: RE: Traffic signal question

Mr. Venkatraman,

The short answer is no we do not have a time of day restriction on traffic movements where drivers are prevented from turning back in the direction they came from at any other intersections. We do have a changeable lane use sign up at Denton Tap and Parkway in the northbound direction where the through lanes reduce to two and add a left turn lane.

This location adds an additional left turn lane and restricts the through movement from that lane.

Thank You, George

George,

I would like to know if there are any other signals in Coppell where at certain times of the day drivers are prevented from turning back in the direction they came from like the signal at Cowboy and Parkway.

Look forward to your response.
