

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Sharon Logan, Community Information Officer, was hired at the City of Coppel in 1998, to provide enhanced information to our citizens; and

WHEREAS, Sharon has completed her tenure providing the highest level of service to the City Manager's Office, the Mayor, members of the City Council and "the man in the house"; and

WHEREAS, Sharon has been an instrumental leader and mentor to many throughout her years of service through the facilitation of Leadership Coppel and the development of the City logo; and

WHEREAS, Sharon held numerous, leadership positions representing Coppel and serving as a Texas Municipal League Board member with the Texas Association of Municipal Information Officers; and

WHEREAS, many of her favorite memories will include: watching the City Manager, Clay Phillips, evacuate 5,000 people in 20 minutes from Andy Brown Park West on a stormy Pigfest evening; finding a den of baby copperheads in the Council Chambers while taking a kindergarten class for a tour; and helping with the rebuilding of Kid Country; and

WHEREAS, Sharon has consistently lived, and encouraged others to follow, the organization's mission of "Building Community through Public Service."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Karen Selbo Hunt, Mayor of the City of Coppel, do hereby proclaim May 24, 2016 as

"SHARON LOGAN APPRECIATION DAY"

ATTEST:

Karen Selbo Hunt, Mayor

Christel Pettinos, City Secretary
