

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, each year Texas experiences a variety of emergencies and natural disasters that pose significant dangers to communities, such that it is vital for all Texans to remain prepared for any disaster; and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that all individuals and communities work together to develop preparedness plans which can help minimize the impact of disaster in Coppell and beyond; and

WHEREAS, individuals and families are encouraged to develop and practice emergency plans to protect their household and property by taking time to create a communication strategy, financial plan, build a three-day disaster preparedness kit, and sign up for emergency alerts; and

WHEREAS, Coppell's Fire Department and Emergency Management staff strive to increase public awareness of the need to prepare for emergencies and disasters; and

WHEREAS, all Coppell residents are empowered to stay prepared today, which ensures a better and safer tomorrow for Coppell and the state of Texas.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wes Mays, as Mayor of the City of Coppell do hereby proclaim the month of September 2021 as: in the City of Coppell, Texas, and encourage all families and businesses to develop their own emergency preparedness plans, thereby creating a safer and more prepared Coppell.

“NATIONAL PREPAREDNESS MONTH”

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my signature and the seal of the City of Coppell, this 14th day of September 2021.

Wes Mays, Mayor

ATTEST:

Ashley Owens, City Secretary
